Method of Play / Rules

Each team member tees off, team captain selects the best ball, entire team hits second shot from that location (one club length while moving down the fairway and one putter head while on the greens). This process continues until the team holes out (one player on the team must sink the put). At the end of each hole, the score for the group is recorded on the card. At the end of the round, the score is totaled and the card is signed by the team captain.

Note: The maximum score allowed is double-par. After that, simply pick up the balls and move on to the next hole.
